Kgothatso Montjane remains SA's number 1 and an instrumental player in the South African wheelchair tennis scene having established herself as an anchor player and a national key point leading the SA team to the Invacare World Team Cups in Kenya and Israel as a player/captain and assisted the team to obtain a top 4 finish for the first time at an international World Team Cup event.

Montjane started playing tennis at the age of 19 whilst studying at Helen Franz School in her home province of Limpopo, she continued on to study a BSC degree in Recreation and Leisure whilst pursuing prospects of a full-time career in tennis.

Montjane currently practices at the Brooklyn Union Tennis Club and also runs the Montjane Sports Development NGO which seeks to establish sporting facilities in rural areas for the disadvantaged.
